

Company History

Claude Vincent founded CV Logistics in 1991 after working for 25 years as an industrial logistics expert for world-renowned pulp and paper producer Domtar Inc. CV Logistics has developed and maintained a reputation for excellence in the logistics field by applying the founder's service-oriented approach. He understands that service is key for every business unit's success.

CV Logistics is headquartered in Rosemere, Quebec, just minutes from Montreal. Our dynamic, experienced staff are all transport logistics specialists who facilitate the entire merchandise shipping process. We focus on saving clients time and money so that they can concentrate on their own productivity.

A family-run company, CV Logistics has been providing cost-efficient and reliable solutions since 1991. Effective, personal attention to every detail makes our service stand out. Businesses across North America call us when they need the best.

Every new client brings new opportunities and challenges. We'd be delighted to help make your business run more efficiently.
